THE WINNERS NEXT TUESDAY

"SPARKS IS GOOD ENOUGH"

So say the people of Nevada, and well they may. In his own person, he stands for the varied interests of the state. He is a ranchman, farmer, miner, big-hearted citizen and plain man of the people.

What would Colorado give for a governor who could keep the peace between labor and capital? What would Idaho give? They would give such a man as John Sparks a thumping majority, because peace means good times for everybody—miners, farmers, merchants, workmen, and all. So we say, Give us four years more of Honest John Sparks in the Governor's chair.

The Desert Blooms

The name of Newlands and the name of National Irrigation—they are one and inseparable, now and forever. Newlands went to Congress for a definite purpose. The purpose was to see that the desert should be reclaimed and Nevada made greater than ever before. He succeeded—the water now flows on desert soil and the land will bloom with homes.

Newlands has other battles to fight for Nevada and the people. The State Senator that you elect this year will hold over until 1909. Vote for the democratic and silver nominee, who will support Francis G. Newlands for reelection.

Bryan Wants Bartlett Elected

William F. Bryan, next president of the United States, urges all friends of progressive ideas to unite in the election of a democratic congress to support President Roosevelt whenever he takes up a democratic policy, use railroad and trust legislation. George A. Bartlett is the man whom Bryan hopes to see the next congressman from Nevada. A vote for Bartlett is a vote for the leadership of Bryan in 1908.

George A. Bartlett is one of the finest and cleanest men who ever came to the front in Nevada politics. And he is as capable as clean. When you honor Bartlett you honor yourself.

"Well Done, Go Higher"

This is the just verdict of public opinion. James G. Sweeney has made a great Attorney-General. He will shine as a justice of the Supreme Court.

A vote for Sweeney is a vote for ability, for integrity, and for progressive principles in government. Sweeney will hold the scales even between labor and capital, between the People and the Corporations.

Labors Champion

Dan Dickerson of White Pine is one of those rare champions of labor who has distinguished himself by preventing labor troubles, instead of breeding them, and for that reason will be a most valuable assistant of John Sparks in keeping Nevada peaceful and prosperous. He is a practical miner who has been from the ranks and understands the hopes and needs of those who toil with their hands.

Dickerson is a fine parliamentarian, and will preside most ably over the state senate. He is fit to fill the Governor's chair when the occasion arises. A vote for Dickerson is a vote for labor and capital alike.

Mannix for Secretary of State

Frank P. Mannix is a friend of human liberty. That is why he left Cripple Creek, Colorado, during the crushing rule of the corporation governor, Peabody, and came to Nevada, the land of free men. He is editor of the Bullfrog Miner, and candidate for

Secretary of State. A man of substantial business interests, he is a trusted friend of labor. The thousands who have heard him on the stump know him for the clean and able man he is. A vote for Mannix is a vote for the highest citizenship.

For Attorney General of Nevada

Richard C. Stoddard, a native Nevanian, has done so well as city attorney of Reno that his ability and integrity are frankly acknowledged by his political opponents. He has won victories for the people and he will win more victories for the people as Attorney General. A vote for Stoddard is a vote for a strong man in a high place, where ability and character are vital to the welfare of the state.

Watch Dog of the Treasury

Dave Ryan, of Virginia City, is again a candidate for State treasurer, not because he wants the office, but because the people insist that he shall serve them. He has filled the place for eight years, and not a breath of scandal has arisen under his administration. He is a square man, both in business and in politics, and in both a rarely successful man. A vote for Dave Ryan is a vote for a trusted Watchdog of the Treasury.

Bob Raffle for Controller

Robert Raffle, former Senator from Carlin, dedicated himself to the miners by his fight for the eight hour law. He is honest, capable, and experienced. As chairman of the committee on Ways and Means in the senate he received special training for the work of the office for which he is now a candidate. A vote for Raffle is a vote for trained capacity in an important office.

Able and Honest

Everybody knows Ed Kelley. Everybody respects and trusts him. He has been identified with Nevada ever since it became a state. He has helped fight its battles through sunshine and storm. He fills the office of Surveyor-General so well that he is absolutely beyond criticism. A vote for Kelley is a vote for honest worth and proved capacity in public place.

Schools and State University

Robert H. Mitchell, candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction was formerly vice principal of private schools of Carson City, and is at present head of the public schools at Sparks. He is thoroughly competent to stand at the head of the school system of Nevada.

The candidates for Regents of the State University are Charles B. Harrison of Elko, one of the ablest and most prominent young men in Nevada; John Sunderland, Jr., of Washoe, a prominent lawyer and a graduate of the State University; and J. H. Southerland, a capable merchant of Washoe.

A vote for these men is a vote for honest and capable management of the great educational interests of Nevada.

State Printer

Irvine G. Lewis of the Carson Appeal, a thoroughly competent man, is a candidate for Superintendent of State printing.

District Judges

The candidates for District Judges are the following: Frank P. Langan, first district; S. H. Bonfield and W. H. A. Pike, second district; Peter Brown, third district; and George S. Brown, fourth district.

DON G. COLGROVE

Goldfield is to have a cash and door factory.

The authorities at Washington will not interfere with the opening of the Walker reservation.

THE BETTING IN RENO

The fact that a man is willing to bet on the election of a candidate does not always mean that the candidate will be elected but it shows the general trend of public opinion. Here is the way it looks to the people of Reno who are inclined to back their opinions with hard cash.

In Reno Oscar J. Smith's home town, the odds against him and in favor of Bartlett are 100 to 65 that the latter will win. These odds are being freely booked in various places in Reno. Governor Sparks is a 25 to 20 favorite and Sweeney is an even bet. The odds in favor of Charles Ferrell for Sheriff are posted 50 to 40 and he is the only republican in state or county politics that is picked as a favorite. The fight between James T. Bond and Robert Perry for State senator is even money with the men who bet; even money prevails between Folsom and his republican opponent for assembly, as does the Evans-Hymer fight for county commissioner and in the Moxey-Robinson fight for public administrator.

Running on His Record

E. E. ROBERTS, candidate for district attorney and superintendent of the schools, is a candidate "upon his record" he is a stand-patter of the first water when it comes to his official duties. There can be no higher endorsement of Mr. Roberts' efficient services than the following report on public record and made to the foreman of the grand jury, T. R. HOFER, by a committee, the majority of which was democratic.

T. R. HOFER, Esq.,
Foreman of the Grand Jury:
Sir—
Your committee, a body to examine the office of District Attorney and ex-officio Superintendent of Schools, begs leave to report as follows:

We find after a careful examination of the office of District Attorney that said office has been ably and conscientiously conducted, the books in excellent condition, and the showing made, one highly to be commended. We find that the office of School Superintendent has been likewise ably conducted, the books in excellent condition, the funds of the various districts in better shape than ever before in the history of the county, and every detail in connection with that office attended to with care and dispatch. In short your committee feels like congratulating the District Attorney and Superintendent of Schools upon his business-like manner in which his office has been conducted.

Respectfully submitted,

H. Heidenreich
C. Burlington
Ed. J. Walsh

Committee.

No Old Scores

I hope, if elected, to conduct the legal department of the office of District Attorney, along legal lines—to work as I would for any client, without foes to punish or friends to reward.

As to the schools, the legitimate functions of the office are limited within lines which should be observed. So far as lies within my province I shall strive, for the good of the community, to aid in providing for the children the best education that can be secured with the means available, irrespective of all personal considerations.

J. POULADE

Independent candidate for District Attorney and County Superintendent of Schools.
